Hello,

This is Mari with American Freight Solutions, LLC. We are a transportation company that offers Hotshots ONLY; we do not have any trailers that are over 40'. We are interested in getting a quote for Trucking insurance.

We are in need of:

General Cargo $100,000.00

Auto Liability $1,000,000.00

We offer Hotshots ONLY. We do not have any trailers that are over 40'.

We only run Legal Size/Legal Weight Loads. Permit may be required on occasion. But, we DO NOT run any loads that require an escort.

Motive is our ELD carrier, although legally we are not required to have ELDs for NON-CDL drivers.

Stephen Uribe is the owner of the company, but does not drive for the company, therefore he does not need to be covered under the policy.

We DO NOT have any company owned vehicles or trailers.

Details about the 8/12/25 loss: The lanes merged due to road construction, the other driver thought they had enough room to clear our trailer and didn't. They hit us on the side. But no claim was paid out because the owner of the trailer decided to pay for repairs on their own.

Details about the 3/17/25 loss: It did involve a golf cart. The wind caused damage. But no claim was paid out because the owner of the golf cart decided to pay for repairs on their own.

As for cancellation, we ran into an issue where they weren't removing drivers, trucks or equipment in a timely fashion and we were still being charged for them after we had already given notification determination and asked that they be removed several months prior. We asked for an accurate amount of what the monthly payment amount was going to be with those changes made and we did not receive an answer in time to make the payment as we did not want to continue to overpay on the account. We were not given any updated payment amount information in October. It wasn't until Mid November that we were given this information. So we are now past due.

Please note that we are looking for the lowest price and lowest downpayment. We will consider a B rating or higher, including any Risk Retention Groups.

I have attached termination letters for the other two drivers that were originally quoted along with their equipment which is also being removed from the quote request as we do not own that equipment.

I have attached drivers licenses, MVRs and any Loss Run Reports I have received so far.

If you have any further questions please let me know.

Thank you.
